Accidents are unavoidable, so are the expenses that come with them. Whether it's mortgage payments, or medical bills, AIG Protect, AIG's Personal Accident Insurance product, covers you for direct as well as incidental expenses, by providing you with a lump sum payment (the sum insured).

The lump sum paid out can be used for meeting additional expenses that are not covered by health insurance or even for compensating the loss of income due to an accidental injury, death or an extended period of hospitalization.
